Collective bargaining agreement

Hotel- and restaurant workers union (HRF)
Number 10, 2017-10-10

The Hotel and Restaurant Workers' Union (HRF) given strike notice on Casino Cosmopol. The reason for the strike notice is that the employer organization Almega still refuse to accept the special improvements for low wage workers that other collective agreements already have agreed upon during this year's collective bargaining.

The strike notice will affect the collective agreement between HRF and Almega concerning the game industry (Casinos).

Companies affected by the notice of strike:

- Casino Cosmopol Malmö, 20 October 2017 at 08.00 pm
- Casino Cosmopol Stockholm, 27 October 2017 at 08.00 pm
- Casino Cosmopol Göteborg, 27 October 2017 at 08.00 pm
- Casino Cosmopol Sundsvall, 27 October 2017 at 08.00 pm

The strike notice affects all workers within the collective agreement Almega Spel at the workplaces that are specified above.

The strike will, if it breaks out into conflict, involve blockade against hiring, strike for all staff at the companies affected and blockade on hiring temporary workers. The strike will break out according to the information above unless the parties agree on a new collective agreement before then.

Brief info on the strike notice:

No-one, member of HRF, another trade union or a none-member, is allowed to perform tasks that is part of the strike at the affected workplaces, if the strike breaks out.

Work that is normally carried out by an HRF member is also not allowed to be carried out by any other, such as white-collar workers, members of other trade unions or workers without a trade union membership.
