Payment of reimbursement

HRFs executive committee have decided that new members joining HRF, and who pay their first membership fee, before 20 October 2017 at 06.00, will receive reimbursement during ongoing conflict.

If the strikes breaks out

No-one, member of HRF, another trade union or a none-member, is allowed to perform tasks that is part of the strike at the affected workplaces, if the strike breaks out.

Work that is normally carried out by an HRF member is also not allowed to be carried out by any other, such as white-collar workers, members of other trade unions or workers without a trade union membership.

You are not required to tell that you are a union member!

No-one needs to tell their employer or boss that they are a member or not a member of HRF or any other trade union, no matter their reason for asking you.

In Sweden, we have freedom of association!

If the employer persists or if you feel uncomfortable in any way, please contact your local representative or HRF-department.
